Kind reference is invited to G.O. No. 5818-20/CB 202-49-1 dated 5-12-49, directing that the Dev. Secy. be permitted to keep the T.A. and D.A. given to him by the Mysore Sugar Co. under certain conditions.

Having regard to the discussions in CB Coll^n No. 202-49-1

Re: T.A. to Sri B.T. Kempanna, Deputy to Govt

and with a view to seeing the difference in amount, it is for order whether the officer may be requested to furnish the details of the t.a. and D.a. payable to him by the Coy. and of those ordinarily admissible otherwise. He may also be requested to clarify whether railway tickets were purchased by the Coy. as on the last occasion or whether he bought them himself.

3 If the tickets has been purchased by the company, Sri Kempanna would have mentioned it. It, therefore, appears not necessary to ascertain information on this point.

4 Hence previous occasion Sri Kempanna may perhaps be permitted to retain the T.A.&D.A payable to him by the company, and the sitting fees being credited to Govt.

5 Apparently the D.A. and T.A. paid by the Coy. are at a higher rate than those paid normally to Govt. Servants. I do think that the aspect of the matter was not gone into in detail while Conceding the request partially on the last occasion.

6. Please obtain details referred to in para 2, separately. (Like need not be sent).
